

Greetings and thank you for visiting our web site. It was designed to be friendly, distinctive, and to improve communications between us.

The site is updated periodically, so check it frequently to discover new information or read the most recent reports from the departments.

The purpose of government is to serve you well. Therefore, please do not hesitate to contact me if you have concerns or suggestions regarding the Village of Oxford or any of our programs or departments.

Contact the Village office for job/volunteer opportunities.

Joe Young at Concerts in the Park!

Voted Citizen of the Year 2010!